ORAL JUDGMENT: Date: 2-7-1993
(Per M.S.Deshpande, Vice-Chairman)

Mr.G.S.Walia for the applicant and
..Mr.S.C.Dhawan for the respondents.

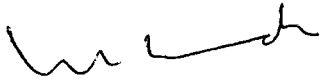

2. Mr.Dhawan raises preliminary objection as the alternate remedy against the order of removal has not been pursued by the applicant.
According to Mr.Walia since the authority who has passed the order of removal is inferior to that of appointing authority<sup>it</sup> is in patent violation of Article 311(1) of the Constitution and this Tribunal should ~~not~~ entertain this application. He relies on a decision of the Supreme Court in the case of A.V.Venkateswaran vs. R.S. Wadhvani, AIR 1961 SC 1506 in support of the point that the Tribunal can entertain the application when the plea of <sup>want</sup> ~~law~~ of jurisdiction is taken. There is no doubt about the jurisdiction about the Tribunal to entertain the application even where an alternate remedy which is available has not been persuaded. However, in the present case we find that ~~the~~ we ought not to entertain this application as all the points raised in the application can be raised before the appellate authority.

3. The application is dismissed summarily.
