ORAL JUDGEMENT

Dated: 29.10.1993

(PER: M.S.Deshpande, Vice Chairman)

Heard both the parties. The applicant challenges his non-selection by the DPC. The allegation is that two of the Members of the DPC, Kelkar and Chitte were personally biased against him. We were taken through the allegations which have been made in the application. All that Kelkar had done was to issue a charge-sheet and the punishment imposed by Kelkar was reduced in an appeal to one of Censure. With regard to Chitte, it is stated that he had made certain adverse confidential remarks against the applicant which were of a <sup>minor</sup> principal nature. But obviously, according to the applicant himself his representation against those adverse remarks was rejected. These instances cannot be reckoned as pointing out to personal bias which would invalidate the constitution of the DPC.

2. We see no merit in the application. It is dismissed.
