O R D E R (ORAL)

¶ Per Shri Justice R.G.Vaidyanatha, Vice Chairman ¶

Case called out for final hearing. Applicant and counsel absent. We have heard counsel for the respondents and perused the material on record.

2. The applicant's main prayer in the O.A. is that he may be permitted to appear for selection to the post of Assistant Personnel Officer to be held on 26.5.1994. The applicant was permitted to appear for the said selection by an interim order.

Irrespective of the result of the O.A., we find that the applicant has failed in the examination and there is no question of getting any promotion. The main prayer in the O.A. is for a direction to the respondents to permit the applicant to appear for the selection. The applicant appeared in the test but failed. Therefore strictly speaking nothing survives in the O.A. The learned counsel for the respondents also brought to our notice that the applicant again appeared in the next selection in 1997 and he has since been selected and promoted.

3. There is one more prayer in the O.A. regarding the dispute of seniority. One of the reasons for claiming the seniority is to get eligibility to appear in the examination. Since the applicant has appeared in the examination, the second relief cannot be granted. Even otherwise the applicant has claimed the relief regarding seniority list of 1987 and the O.A. has been filed 7 years later in 1994. It is well settled that the dispute like seniority cannot be agitated after a long lapse of time.

4. For the above reasons the O.A. is dismissed.
No costs.
