ORAL JUDGMENT:

DATED: 11.7.1994

(Per: M.S. Deshpande, Vice Chairman)

The applicant's father met with an accident and he was discharged from service on 31.8.1978. He represented to the Respondent no.1 for seeking compassionate appointment to the member of his family but nothing was done until his death on 26.3.1981. By the communication dated 26.2.87 the applicant was informed that his father had died five years ago. The communication dated 26.2.87 gives the grounds for not considering the applicant as entitled to compassionate appointment, one of them is the rule of relaxation for appointing him. The application is therefore dismissed.
