Tribunal's Order By Circulation
(PER: P.P.Srivastava, Member (A))

Dated: 25.9.95

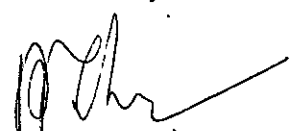

This is a review petition filed for reviewing our order passed in M.A.No. 448/95 in OA.NO. 478/94. In the Original Misc. Application the following orders were passed on 18.8.1995.

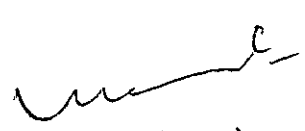

" Shri A.Ansari for the applicant.
Shri N.K.Srinivasan for the respondents.

No interim relief but liberty to the applicant if he so chooses to approach the Industrial or Labour Court since the notice has been given under Section 25 (f) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Status-quo, however, to continue for four weeks to enable the applicant to pursue the matter before the Industrial Court.

Copy of the order be given to both the sides."

The applicant has not brought out any new facts in the review application which could not be produced at the time of hearing of the Misc.Application nor the applicant has pointed out any error apparent on the face of record. Moreover, the order passed in Misc.Application gives liberty to the applicant to approach the Industrial or Labour Court. We do not see any reason to review this order. The review application is, therefore, dismissed.

1. The Petitioner states that the abovementioned Miscellaneous Application came up for hearing on 18-8-1995 and this Hon'ble Tribunal after hearing the arguments of the advocates, was pleased to reject the M.A. for grant of Interim Relief on the ground that the Notice has been given under Section 25(f) of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Petitioner submit that the abovementioned case was filed for a mandatory order that the Petitioner be regularised as regular Table Boy in scale Rs. 750-940 against the existing regular vacancies pursuant to the decision of the Supreme Court in M.M.R.Khan's case reported in 1990 SCC(L & S) 632 and the Railway Board's letter dated 18-5-1990(Exhibit 'A' to the O.A.). This Hon'ble Tribunal has also decided a similar identical case being O.A. No. 562 of 1990 by it's judgement dated 4-7-1991 (Exhibit 'B' to the O.A.).

3. The Petitioner submits that the following submissions which are vital facts and which have effect to change the nature of the order dated 18-8-95 passed by this Hon'ble Tribunal, was not available with the petitioner at the time of hearing of the M.A. As such the same though relevant were not submitted and therefore not taken into consideration while passing the order dated 18-8-95. ....3.

5. The Petitioner states that by a Notice dated 6th June, 1995 the Respondents issued order of termination of the Petitioner. The Petitioner therefore as per order dated 27-5-1994 filed a M.A.No. 448 of 1995 for grant of Interim Relief. The grounds for seeking Interim Relief was as under:

No. 562 of 1990 and the order dated 14-1-0-1994 in O.A. No. 1083 of 1994 filed in this Hon'ble Tribunal.

6. The Petitioner submits that No Interim Relief is granted by this Hon'ble Tribunal in this case for the reason that the service of the Petitioner is sought to be terminated by Notice under Section 25 (f) of the Industrial Disputes Act. i.e. on the ground of jurisdiction.

7. The Petitioner submits that maintainability of the Application filed by the Casual Labour when terminated under Section 3(q)(i)(ii) and 14(1)(b) ~~has~~ of the ~~Advisory Tribunal, Act-1985~~ has been decided by the Full Bench of the Principal Bench, New Delhi in Rehmat Ullah Khan & Ors V/s Union of India & Ors reported in Full Bench Cases Vol. I page 323 relevant paras 12, 24 and 28.
