We do not think that we should interfere at this stage when the proceedings arising out of the Notice
dated 21-12-94 is still pending.
Liberty to the authority to complete
those proceedings but the operation of the order is stayed for three weeks from the date of communication of the order to the applicant. With this direction, the DA. is disposed

Hon'ble Shri P.P.Srivastava, Member(A).

Appearances:-

Applicant by Shri M.A.Mahalle.

Tribunal's Order :

(Per Shri M.S.Deshpande, Vice-Chairman) Dt. 25.9.1995.

Heard Shri M.A.Mahalle, counsel for the applicant. He states that in the Judgment dt.24.1.1995 an ambiguity arises because it is not clear which order is to be stayed for three weeks, because it ~~was~~ not clarified ~~that~~ the operation of the 'final' order should be stayed. Since the context in which the expression appears shows that such an order was to be passed after completing the proceedings, it can only mean that it ~~was~~ the final order which was within our contemplation and there is no need for any further clarification.

2. The Review Application is therefore dismissed.
