CORAM: Hon'ble Vice Chairman Shri Justice M.S.Deshpande
Hon'ble Member (A) Shri P.P.Srivastava

Tribunal's Order by Circulation

Dated: 27.9.95

(PER: P.P.Srivastava, Member (A))

By this Review Petition the review petitioner seeks review of the order passed on 4.8.1995 while admitting the OA. The order reads as under :-

" Mr.S.R.Atre, Counsel for applicant. Mr. V.S.Masurkar, Counsel for respondents.

ADMIT.

Reply has been filed.

Mr.Masurkar, Counsel for respondents states that the persons whose promotions are disputed on the ground of new seniority list and the position which the applicant is claiming have not been made parties to the present OA.

Mr. Atre states that he does not want to challenge those officer's promotions and and claim any relief against them but seeks his position in the seniority list and consequential monetary relief based on the position of the juniors.

In view of this the petition can proceed.

No interim relief.

If the respondents want to file a sur-rejoinder, it may be filed within four weeks.

Case be listed before Registrar on 19.9.1995 and thereafter keep in sine-die list."

The petitioner has sought the two paras after the word 'ADMIT' in the above order to be deleted. The petitioner has also sought to amend the application by introducing the amendment as Annexure- 'A-1' to the review petition.

2. We have considered the matter. The petitioner's counsel has stated at the time of hearing that he does not want to challenge the officers' promotions and claim any relief against them and the order dated 4.8.1995 was passed after this statement by the counsel for the applicant Mr. S.R.Atre. Since the order 4.8.1995 was passed on specific pleadings of the counsel, we do not see that this is a case which would come under the purview of the review. If the petitioner wants to challenge the promotions of officers and claim any relief and also wants to amend the OA., he may file an M.P. for the same. ^{if so advised.} The review petition is dismissed with the above observations.

(ORAL)(ORDER).

Per Shri S.R.Adige, Vice Chairman(A)

Applicant impugnes the validity of the seniority list of Assistant Engineer (E) P&T Civil Wing issued vide memo dated 2/5/92 (Anneuxre A-1), to the extent mentioned in the OA and in office memo dated 22/6/1993. He seeks declaration that he is covered by Initial Constitution Clause brought in force by the Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1984 and is entitled to be placed after serial no.7 in the aforesaid seniority list dated 22/5/93. ~~However,~~ Consequential benefits have also been prayed for, including reconsideration of review of his case for promotion for the post of Executive Engineer(E).

2. We have heard the applicant Shri R.K.Jain in person and Shri V.S.Masurkar, Counsel for Respondents.

3. Shri V.S.Masurkar has invited our attention to Central Administrative Tribunal, Mumbai Bench order dated 19/10/2001 in OA Nos.39/99, 40/99 and 41/99. In OA 40/99, the applicant was private respondent no.4 and we notice from the Tribunal's order dated 19/10/2001 disposing of all the aforesaid three OAs that applicant was present during hearing in person.

4. These three OAs were disposed by aforesaid order dated 19/10/2001, whereby the impugned office memo dated 9/1/98 revising the seniority list of Assistant Engineers(E) were quashed, and respondents were directed to recast the seniority list having regard to the judgements of the Supreme Court and the observations made in the aforesaid Order. Applicants were ^{held} entitled to consequential benefits according to law.

5. During the course of hearing, respondents counsel Shri Masurkar informed ^{us} ^h that the seniority list of Assistant Engineers(E) dated 22/5/92, was itself revised in 1998 and by the aforesaid order of the Tribunal dated 19/10/2001, the seniority list revised in 1998 had ^{now} ~~been~~ been quashed and set aside.

6. Shri Masurkar ^{also} ~~therefore~~ informed us that while recasting the seniority pursuant to the Tribunal's order dated 19/10/2001, objections would be invited and disposed before the seniority list is finalised.

7. During the course of hearing, applicant Shri R.K.Jain stated that ^{his} ^h seniority in the grade of Assistant Engineer(E) already remained settled in the light of earlier orders of the Tribunal. It will be open to applicant to bring the contents of such orders of the Tribunal to the notice of the ^{appropriate} ~~Appellate~~ Authority while they are inviting objections to ^{the} seniority list which they are now required to recast pursuant to the Tribunal's order dated 19/10/2001, and we call upon respondents to consider the same in accordance with rules and instructions as well as judicial pronouncements on the subject, ^{as and} ~~and~~ when applicant files any representation, at the time ~~of~~ ^{when} objections are invited while recasting the seniority list.

8. If after disposing of applicants objections any grievance still survives, it will be open to applicant to challenge the same through appropriate proceedings in accordance with law and instructions.

9. The OA is therefore disposed of in terms of what has been stated above. No costs.

CONTEMPT PETITION NO: 102/2002 IN ORIGINAL APPLICATION NO: 10/95.

TRIBUNAL'S ORDER

DATED: 28.8.2003

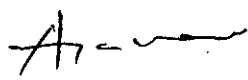

Shri S.S. Karkera counsel for the applicant.
Shri V.S. Masurkar counsel for the respondents.

2. The Petitioner in Contempt Petition No. 102/2002 has made a grievance that the directions given in the OA are not obeyed by the original respondents and the respondents are not implementing the seniority list. According to the learned counsel for the applicant, the non-implementation of seniority list deprives the applicant from being promoted. Therefore necessary action are required to be taken against the respondents. Shri Masurkar counsel for the respondents have pointed out that seniority list is under challenge before the Hon'ble High Court and private respondents have already moved the Hon'ble High Court for challenging the orders of the Tribunal. According to him the applicant is also a party in one or the other matter. It is true that there is no stay of the order so far. The respondents states that the direction given in the OA cannot be implemented by the department in view of the matters being sub-judice by the Hon'ble High Court. Since the seniority list which is is sought to be implemented by the respondents is already under challenge before the Hon'ble High Court, the department evidently cannot operate the seniority list and give any promotions on the basis of that seniority list. We therefore find that this C.P. as moved by the applicant at this juncture cannot be decided and the department cannot be held to be willfully dis-obeying the orders of the Tribunal. The C.P. therefore deserves to be rejected as the orders passed in the OA are not capable of being obeyed at present. However, it will be open to the applicant to move another C.P. or take recourse to any other proceedings available after the Hon'ble High Court decides the question of seniority, if the applicant is still remains agrieved. C.P. 102/2002 stands disposed of with these observations. Notice issued on C.P. is (discharged).

:2:
