3. Though the applicant has stated in his OA that he has exhausted all the departmental remedies available to him, <sup>but</sup> in fact he has not preferred an appeal to the departmental authorities.

4. The applicant has filed this OA on 22.7.1997 against the above referred order dated 27.1.1997. In such circumstances, the applicant was keen to pursue his remedies but by mistake he could not file the appeal. Therefore, we think it proper to afford the applicant an opportunity to file appeal before the competent appellate authority within thirty days from today and thereafter the competent authority shall, by condoning the delay, decide the matter on merits. Applicant shall be at liberty, if he is aggrieved by the decision of the appellate authority, to pursue the matter in accordance with law. The appellate authority is directed to decide the appeal within a period of four months from the receipt of a copy of this order.

5. The OA is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
