presence on behalf of applicants. We have therefore, taken up the OA and MP for final hearing and disposal. Shri V.S.Masurkar, Learned Counsel who is present on behalf of Respondents states on instructions received from the Department that in the O.A. at para 8, the applicant was seeking stepping up of pay to the level of a person who was not comparable as he belonged to another seniority list. He further states that in the MP filed dt. 1.3.2002 an amendment is sought to the effect that a stepping up to be given with reference to another junior, Shri C.N.Vasan.

2. While maintaining that the amendment is not maintainable as it relates to a fresh cause of action, Shri V.S.Masurkar did however, state that after examining the matter raised in M.P, the Respondents have granted the benefit sought to the applicant; In view of this position the OA and MP are disposed of, noting above. No orders as to costs.
