: OPEN COURT ORDER :

¶ PER.: SHRI R. G. VAIDYANATHA, VICE-CHAIRMAN ¶

Heard the Learned Counsel for the applicant.

2. In this application, the applicant is challenging the order of termination dated 14.04.1987.

...2

The application is filed in August, 1998, nearly 11½ years after the order of termination. Except stating that the applicant was making representation and that he did not have sufficient funds, there is no sufficient grounds to condone this inordinate delay of 11½ years. In addition to this, I find that on merits, the applicant was appointed as a stop-gap arrangement, namely as a substitute in a leave vacancy. When regular candidate was appointed, the services of the applicant was terminated. Since the applicant's engagement was on temporary basis and as a stop-gap arrangement, he has no right for the post in question and, therefore, cannot challenge the order of termination.

3. Hence, both on the question of limitation, delay & laches and on merits, I do not find any merit in the application.

4. In the result, the application is rejected at the admission stage.

(R. G. VAIDYANATHA)
VICE-CHAIRMAN.
