¶ Per Shri Justice R.G.Vaidyanatha, Vice Chairman

In this application, the applicant is challenging the selection of respondent No.3 for the post of Extra Departmental Branch Postmaster, Dongar Patoda, Beed. The learned counsel for the official respondents opposed the application. Respondent No.4 has filed reply. We have heard counsel for both sides regarding admission and interim relief.

2. It is admitted before us that the department had considered 20 candidates including the applicant and respondent No.3 and on merits respondent No.3 has been selected. The learned counsel for official respondents placed before us the tabulation of marks of all the candidates, from which it is seen that respondent No.3 has got highest marks in the S.S.L.C. which is the minimum qualification for the post in question. We are satisfied that respondent No.3 has been selected on merits. The applicant has not been selected in view of the better qualified candidates. In these circumstances there is no ground to quash the appointment of respondent No.3.

3.* The learned counsel for the applicant made a grievance that proper weightage to the applicant on provisional service of Extra Departmental Branch Postmaster has not been considered and necessary direction may be given to the respondents to consider the case of the applicant for future vacancy as and when arises. The learned counsel for the respondents states that the department has no objection to consider the case of the applicant as per rules. It is not disputed that the applicant has worked on provisional basis or adhoc basis as Extra departmental Branch Postmaster for 14 months. Naturally due weightage should be given to the service of the applicant while considering the candidates for selection as per Rules.

4. In the result the application is disposed of at the admission stage with a direction to the official respondents that in case <sup>of any</sup> future vacancy in Beed Postal Division arises then applicant's case may be considered on merits subject to due weightage to the post as per Rules. The ad-interim order granted is hereby vacated. In the circumstances of the case no order as to costs.
