Hon'ble Shri J.Narasimha Murthy : Member(Judl)

I Judgment as per Hon'ble Shri J.Narasimha Murthy, Member(Judl).I

This contempt petition is filed by the petitioners against the respondent for not implementing the order of this Tribunal in O.A.No.682/89.. In the order this Tribunal gave the judgment

"Accordingly the applicants are entitled to get the arrears of Over-Time Allowance for the period from 6.11.73 to July 1983 as per rules and we direct the respondents to pay the Over-Time Allowance to the applicants on par with the other factory workers.

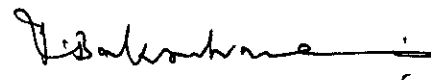

With the above direction the O.A. is allowed with all consequential benefits."

which was pronounced on 21.2.91. This contempt petition was filed on 21.6.91 for not complying with the court's order.

2. We have heard the learned counsel Shri G.Bikshapathi for the petitioners and Shri N.Bhaskar Rao for the respondent.

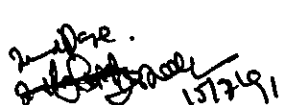

3. In this case there is no time limit fixed for implementing the court's order. Generally, in such cases, they have to implement the court's order within six months. In this case the order is passed hardly four months back. So there is no contempt involved in this case. But the respondents have not chosen to execute the order so far and the grounds explained for the delay are not convincing. So we direct the respondent to comply with the court's order positively within one month from the date of receipt of this order. Accordingly the contempt petition is disposed of with no order as to costs.
