post of Messenger is a Class IV post which comes within the purview of Section 3 of the Employment Exchange compulsory notification of Act, 1959 and it is, therefore, not obligatory to the employer to notify the vacancy to the Employment Exchange and the employer could directly entertain the application for appointment of class IV posts. Hence, he has filed this application seeking a direction to the respondent to consider the case of the applicant also along with the candidates sponsored by the Employment Exchange.

2. We have heard the learned counsel for the applicant and Standing Counsel for the Respondents.

3. In similar cases viz., O.A.NO. 13 of 1987 and batch, following the decision of the Supreme Court in Union of India and others Vs. Haragopal and others (AIR 1987 SC 1227), we have held that 'the procedure adopted by the departments of the Government of India in notifying the vacancies to the Employment Exchange and restricting consideration of persons sponsored by the Employment Exchange is not violative of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India'. No new points have been adduced in this case. In these circumstances, the application fails and it is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
