2. Heard the learned counsel for the applicant Shri Kalyan Rao Joshi and the learned standing counsel Shri N.R.Devaraj. Shri Joshi relies on the instructions in South Central Railway circular No.P(SC) 268/I/Vol.II dated 18/23-09-1980 which were based upon Railway Board's instructions for giving an appointment on Compassionate Grounds to a near relative. The terms and conditions under which compassionate appointment should be given have been set out in the said orders. Shri N.R.Devaraj seeks to <sup>contend</sup> state that the subsequent orders relied upon <sup>supersede</sup> this order. However, no specific superseding order was brought to our notice. Shri N.R.Devaraj further contends that under Muslim Law there is no provision for adoption.

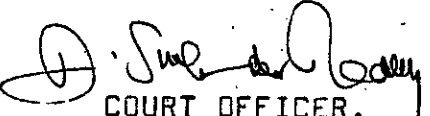

3. It is however to be noted that the impugned order No.CP/175/G.O.Ms.80/88/AC dated 25-04-1988, the compassionate appointment was not rejected on the ground that an adopted son is not eligible for appointment <sup>but on the</sup> ground that it is not possible to offer appointment to S.F.Pasha as the bread winner of the family on compassionate grounds. No reasons have been given why <sup>he</sup> can not be appointed, whether the instructions dated 18-23-9-1980 will apply or not or whether <sup>there are</sup> ~~there is~~ any other rules/ instructions governing this case. In these circumstances we direct the applicant to make a fresh application to the respondent. The respondents are directed to dispose of
