Counsel for the Applicant : Shri P.Naveen Rao

Counsel for the Respondents : Shri N.R.Devraj, Sr.CGSC

(order of the Divn. Bench passed by Hon'ble Shri A.B.Gorthi, Member (A)).

-- -- -- --

The applicant who was first engaged as Casual Mazdoor in the Department of Telecommunications, Jagtial, Sub Division on 1-8-83 claims that although he had worked continuously, with some breaks on account of his illness till 31-10-88 the Respondents refused to re-engage him after 1-11-88. When the O.A. came up for admission an interim order was passed on 29-9-89 directing the Respondents to re-engage the applicant, if any one junior to him had been retained or taken as Casual Labour. We are now informed by the applicant's counsel that in compliance with the interim order the applicant has been re-engaged as he is continuing as Casual Labour todate.

2. The Respondents' counsel states that the applicant was initially engaged as Casual Mazdoor in Jagtial Sub-Division on 1-8-83. They however contend that the applicant absented himself from April, 1985, to September, 1985, and again from June, 1986 to July, 1986. He was also absent for more than six months with effect from 16-8-86 till he was re-engaged on 4-3-87. ⁱⁿ The counter, ^{on} of the Respondents ^{is} ~~is~~ also not able to explain satisfactorily as to why the applicant was not considered for regularisation. The applicant was dis-engaged from 1-11-88 as there was no work and as he could not be considered for regularisation.

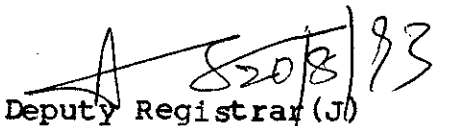

3. Even if the various spells for which applicant had worked prior to 1987 were to be ignored, the fact remains that the Respondents engaged the applicant as a fresh case with effect from 4-3-87 and the applicant continued to serve under the Respondents as a Casual Labour till 31-10-88. Once again, in compliance with the interim order of the Tribunal the applicant was engaged in 1989 and is continuing to work as Casual Labour as on today. In view of the period of service rendered by the applicant the case of the applicant deserves to be considered for regularisation vis-a-vis those who had put in similar length ~~type~~/of service as a Casual Labour. In considering the case of the applicant for regularisation, the respondents ^{are} will examine if there/any further breaks in service after 4-3-87 and if so consider whether they can be condoned in accordance with the extant instructions. If there are no breaks in service, the case of the applicant will be considered for regularisation along with those who had ~~xxx~~ put in equal number of days of service as C_asual Labour. The application is allowed in the above terms. No order as to costs.
