O R D E R

This application has been filed by the respondents in OA 612/89 for review of our order dated 18-8-1989 which reads as under:-

~~We read both sides.~~ 3

The respondents are directed to consider the case of the applicants for promotion of Fireman-C (Fireman Grade II) within two months from the date of this order according to rules."

2. We have carefully considered the Review Application but do not find any omission, mistake or error apparent on the face of the record in the above order. No new important matter or evidence has also been brought to our notice. This application for review is devoid of merit and is, accordingly, rejected with no order as to costs.
