THE HON'BLE SHRI T.CHANDRASEKHAR REDDY : MEMBER (J)

(Order of the Divn. Bench passed by Hon'ble Shri A.B.Gorthi, Member (A) ).

-- -- --

The applicant who was a Goods Guard has filed this application aggrieved by the impugned order dt.31-3-90 under which some of his juniors were promoted to the post of Passenger Guard but he was not. His prayer in the application is to set aside the impugned order and to issue a direction to the respondents to promote the applicant to the post of Passenger Guard.

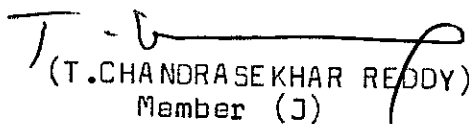

2. We have heard learned counsel for both the parties. The applicant's counsel submits that he had no instructions from his client and he is therefore not able to press this application. Shri N.R.Devraj, learned counsel for the Respondents states that the applicant has since been promoted with effect from 24-4-90 as Passenger Guard. We are now informed that the applicant ~~is~~ subsequently retired from service also. In view of this we accept the contention of the respondents counsel that this application has become infruc-
