O.A.No.576/90

Dt. of decision:21-12-1993.

Judgement

{ As per the Hon'ble Sri V. Neeladri Rao, Vice Chairman }

This O.A. was filed praying for a direction to the respondents to consider the claims of the applicants forthwith for promotion as Dy.Director/Executive Engineer in Central Water Commission (Group 'A' Service) by taking into their inter se ranking therein, as per the revised provisional seniority list of Asst.Directors communicated through O.M. dt. 7-9-89, and for declaration that they are entitled to be treated to have been promoted w.e.f. 28-2-90 the date on which the juniors have earned such promotion.

2. By the date of this O.A. the three applicants were working as Asst. Directors in the Central Water Engineering Service. Shri V.P. Mishra, an Asst. Director in this organisation filed OA No.31/87 on the file of the Principal Bench at New Delhi claiming that the seniority had to be reckoned from the date of commencement of the adhoc service as their services were regularised while they were on adhoc service, and there was no break in the adhoc service. The said contentions for the applicant therein were upheld and the said O.A. was allowed. Thereupon, the seniority list of Assistant Directors was revised and communicated through O.M. dt.7-9-89. But the respondents proceeded to consider the case of Asst. Directors for promotion as Dy.Director/Executive Engineer on the basis of the earlier seniority list of 1985/1987 on the ground that SLP was filed against the order dt. 3-8-88 in O.A. 31/87 on the file of the Principal Bench. But no stay was granted by the Supreme Court pending disposal of SLP. Then this OA was filed praying for the reliefs referred to.

3. Shri P.N. Murthy, one of the Asst. Directors in this organisation filed OA 1523/89 on the file of the Principal Bench contending that his seniority list ~~has~~ prepared in 1985/87 is in accordance with rules. By order dt.15-12-89, the Principal Bench held in M.P. No.1929/89 and 2192/89 in O.A. No.1523/89 that any selection/promotion to the post of Dy.Director/Executive Engineer will be subject to the outcome of O.A.1523/89.

4. When the above interim order of the Principal Bench was brought to the notice of this ^{Bench,} Tribunal an ^{was passed} interim order in this OA/on 20-8-90. It is to the effect that the respondents should make promotions on the basis of provisional seniority list dt.7-9-89 prepared in terms of order passed by the Principal Bench in O.A.31/87. The said relief, as per the interim order, can be treated as the relief in this O.A. which is claimed as per Para 'A' in the relief portion; if ultimately the Supreme Court allows the SLP or pass^{es} any modified order, ~~then~~ the applicants herein also will be governed by the same.

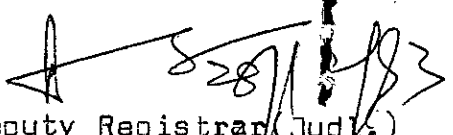

5. If the applicants were promoted to the posts of Dy. Director/Executive Engineer, then their promotions to the said cadre should be given w.e. from the ~~revised~~ dates on which their juniors, who were continued in the said post without any interruption, were promoted.

6. If there was no such junior, then it is needless to say that ^{their} ~~there~~ promotions are from the dates from which they joined the post of Dy. Director/Executive Engineer. But if it is a case where the date of promotion had to be advanced, where juniors ^{are} ~~were~~ continued without any interruption, were promoted earlier, then their notional pay ^{has} ~~had~~ to be fixed on the date of the deemed promotion; but the monetary relief is limited for the period from 13-7-89 as this OA ^{was} ~~is~~ present on 13-7-90. This OA is ordered accordingly. No costs.
