The applicant herein states that the 1st Respondent had notified in the first week of February, 1991 certain vacancies to the Employment Exchange Office, Vijayawada for sponsoring candidates for being appointed as Peon. On coming to know of it, the applicant submitted an application to the 1st Respondent for the said post but the 1st Respondent refused to consider the same stating that unless his name is sponsored by the Employment Exchange, his candidature cannot be considered.

The applicant states that he already got registered his name with the 2nd respondent vide his registration No. 6266/83. The applicant alleges that the 2nd respondent sponsored the names of his juniors i.e. the candidates got registered with the Employment Exchange much after the applicant got registered with the Employment Exchange, but did not sponsored the applicants name. The applicant therefore filed this Original Application seeking a direction to the respondent No.2 to sponsor his name to the 1st respondent for considering his name for the post peon.

2. We have heard Shri K.Venkateswarlu, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri Naram Bhaskar Rao, learned standing counsel for the 1st Respondent and Shri D.Pandu Ranga Reddy, special counsel for the A.P.State Government, both of them taking notice at the admission stage.

3. The learned counsel for the applicant states that the selections to these posts will be made shortly and if the applicant is not considered along with others eventhough he had registered his name by much earlier than those persons who have been sponsored by the employment exchange, he will suffer irreparable loss. After considering these submissions and on the basis of the
