Dt. of Order: 28-4-94.

(Order of the Divn. Bench passed by Hon'ble Shri A.B.Gorthi, Member (A)).

The applicant was initially engaged as a Casual Mazdoor under the Respondents on 6-9-1985.
During 1985-86 and 1987 he had worked for short spells with long intermittent breaks. The applicant states that it was ^{partly} on account of his sickness and partly for want of work that he was engaged ^{only} for short spells during this period. However, he was engaged again on 8-2-88 and he worked continuously for 555 days till 8-11-1989, when his services were dis-engaged. Four months thereafter he was again engaged in March, 1990, for a period of 25 only. Thereafter though he continued to be employed, his name was not shown on Muster Rolls. Consequently he ~~has~~ approached the Tribunal with O.A.709/91. During the pendency of the O.A. the applicant's services were terminated w.e.f. 1-3-1992. Aggrieved by the same he has filed O.A. 184/92 seeking ~~in~~ direction to the Respondents to re-engage him with all consequential benefits.

2. No counter affidavit has been filed by the Respondents in either of the two Original Applications.

However, having heard learned counsel for both the parties we are disposing of both the Original Applications by means of this common order.

3. Admittedly, the applicant ~~has~~ worked for certain spells during 1985-86 and 1987 under the Respondents. In any case he was re-engaged on 8-2-1988 and he continued to work till his services were disengaged w.e.f. 1-3-1992. In view of this, we dispose of both the Original Applications with the following directions to the Respondents :-

(i) the name of the applicant shall be kept in the Casual Labour Register keeping in view the number of days of service rendered by him as a Casual Labour under the Respondents;

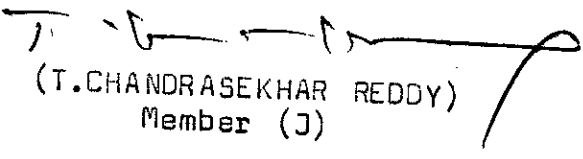

(ii) it is open to the Respondents to consider the case of the applicant for condonation of break in service in accordance with the extant instructions and keeping in view the judgment of the Ernakulam Bench of the Tribunal in the case of A. Mohan Vs. Govt. of India through Dept., of Telecom (1993 (2) ATJ page-1), wherein it was held that break in service even ~~beyond~~ exceeding one year could be considered for condonation on merits;

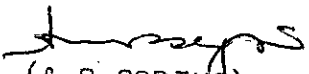

(iii) the applicant will be re-engaged if there is work in preference to his juniors and freshers;

(iv) the case of the applicant for grant of temporary status and regularisation will be considered by the respondents in accordance with the scheme/instructions.

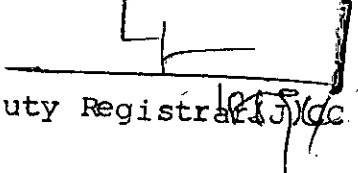

4. Both O.A.709/91 and O.A.184/92 are thus disposed-of.

No order as to costs.
