Employment Officer, Ananthapur. After verifying the records, the District Employment Officer forwarded another proceedings dt.18-2-1991 sponsoring the name of the Applicant and another. The applicant approached the Superintendent of Post Office, Ananthapur, requesting that she may be given the application form for applying to the post of EDBPM. The Superintendent of Post Offices, Ananthapur, (Respondent) had orally rejected her request to give the application form without furnishing any reasons. Hence this application.

3. I have heard Shri A.Bhaskarachary, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri N.R.Devaraj, learned standing counsel for the Respondents. After hearing the arguments advanced and considering the averments made, I find that a direction should be issued to the Respondent i.e. the Superintendent of Post Offices, Ananthapur District, to issue an application form to the applicant if her name has been sponsored by the District Employment Officer in proceedings dt.18-2-1991 and consider her name also along with others while making selections to the post of EDBPM, Chiyyedu Village. The applicant will approach the Superintendent of Post Offices for getting the application form within one week from the date of this order and submit the completed form within one week from the date of receipt of the application form. Application is disposed-of with these directions. No costs.
