of the Central Administrative Tribunals (Procedures)
Rules, 1987 to review our judgement dated 28.8.92.

2. OA 266/91 had been filed by the Petitioner herein to direct the respondents to issue necessary orders for encashment of earned leave for 29 days that was due to the applicant. We had held in our Judgement dated 28.8.92, while dismissing the OA, that the applicant had only 211 days of earned leave to his credit at the time of his retirement and not 240 days as claimed by him. Hence, for the reasons mentioned in the Judgement dated 28.8.92, OA 266/91 was dismissed. The present Review Petition is filed to review our Judgement dated 28.8.92 passed in OA 266/91.

3. This RP is filed by the applicant on 17.6.83. The office records disclose that the judgement in OA 266/91 had been despatched to the applicant on 9.9.92. In the usual course, the applicant should have received the copy of this order within 3 or 4 days on or after 9.9.92. So in terms of Rule 17 of the Central Administrative Tribunals (Procedures) Rules, 1987, the applicant should have approached this Tribunal within 30 days from the date of communication of this order <sup>on or before</sup> i.e. 9.10.92. So, there is a gap of 8 months delay in preferring this RP, by the applicant. The applicant has not filed any application to condone the delay of 8 months in this RP. No sufficient cause also is made out by the applicant in this RP to explain the delay of nearly 240 days in filing this RP. In view of this position, we do not have any difficulty to hold that this RP is barred by time. We have gone through the contentions raised by the <sup>in the Review Petition</sup> Petitioner. The very same points that were urged in the OA are again sought to be raised in this Review Petition.

Hence, the RP is rejected as time barred.
