JUDGMENT OF THE SINGLE MEMBER BENCH DELIVERED BY THE HON'BLE
SHRI T.CHANDRASEKHARA REDDY, MEMBER (JUDL.)

This is an application filed under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 to declare that the applicant is entitled to get the daily allowance for the period of training of 72 days on his promotion as Junior Accounts Officer which commenced from 7.1.1990 to 29.3.1990 outside the headquarters.

2. Counter is filed by the respondents opposing the O.A.

3. We have heard today Mr. Krishna Devan, learned counsel for the applicant and Mr. Naram Bhaskar Rao, learned Additional Standing Counsel for the Respondents. Admittedly, the applicant had been sent for training on the promotion as Junior Accounts Officer from Vijaya<sup>n</sup> ~~Vijaya~~ <sup>Nagam</sup> to Visakhapatnam as per the orders of his superiors. Admittedly, at the place where the applicant had to undergo the training, the Government had not provided lodging and boarding facilities to the applicant ~~free~~ <sup>should</sup> of cost. For all purposes, the applicant himself be deemed to have been on "official duty" while undergoing the said training. ~~For~~ <sup>should</sup> the applicant had been sent for training as per the orders of his superior officer and as the applicant ~~must~~ <sup>should</sup> be deemed to be on "official duty" while undergoing the said training, it will be just and
