(Order of the division Bench delivered by Sri. R. Balasubramanian, Administrative Member)

When the case was called, the Bench was informed that the respondents have not yet passed any orders regarding how the period of absence between 17-12-87 and 29-11-88 is to be treated. Under these circumstances, we dispose of this OA with the following directions:

- (a) The applicant shall file a detailed representation to the concerned respondents as to how his absence during the said period is to be treated.
- (b) Within a month after receipt of such representation, the respondents shall pass final orders on how the period of absence is treated. If the applicant is aggrieved with a such a final order he is at liberty to approach this Tribunal in accordance with law within one month from today.
