(Order of the Division Bench delivered by Hon'ble
Shri A.B.Gorthi, (Member (Admn.))

None for the Contempt Petitioners. Mr. Parameswara Rao learned counsel for the respondents present. The complaint in this Contempt Petition is that the respondents have not complied <sup>with</sup> that our judgement dated 18.3.92 in OA No. 204/92. In that judgement <sup>the</sup> direction was given to the respondents to work out the ~~pro~~prorata pension to which the applicant is entitled under the terms and conditions stipulated in the letter of absorption dated 10.4.90 in <sup>conjunction</sup> ~~connection~~ with other relevant orders on the subject and to communicate the same to the 4th respondent for further action. The said direction was to be carried out within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of order.

2. Mr. Parameswara Rao has drawn our attention to the fact that the said judgement in OA No. 204/92 stands modified by the judgement of the Tribunal in RP No. 122/92. As the applicant was not entitled to prorata pension on the ground that he had opted for payment of lumpsum amount of the pension the judgement in OA 204/92 was modified and it was left open to respondents one and three to pass appropriate orders, in accordance with the terms of letter of absorption dated 10.4.90 and communicate the same to the applicant in the mean while.

3. In the light of the above, this Contempt Petition has no merit ~~in it~~ and the same is dismissed without giving any notice to the respondents.
