posing of the case at the admission stage with directions. The grievance of the applicants is that their juniors were sponsored for the test and interview by the 2nd Respondent though they are seniors in registration and their name appears in the live register. Under these circumstances, the 2nd Respondent is directed to send the names of the applicants for the ensuing test and interview if their names are in the live register, and if their juniors ~~xxxx~~ belonging to the same category have already been sponsored for the 'Sepoy' post in the 1st Respondent's organisation. These directions shall be carried out immediately by the Respondents.

3. With the above directions the Original Application is disposed-of at the admission stage itself with no order as to costs.

4. The Registry is directed to furnish a copy of this order to the parties today itself.
