Heard Shri K. Kanakaraju, on behalf of Shri K. Subrahmanyam, learned counsel for the applicant and also Shri N.R. Devaraj, learned counsel for the respondents.

The thrust of the applicant's case is that she should get the benefit of relaxation contained in the Memo. dated 8-5-91 of the respondents (A-III).

On the other hand, Shri N.R. Devaraj, learned counsel for the respondents drew our attention to Rule 38(5) of P&T Manual Vol. IV according to which when an official seeks change of cadre and training for the new cadre is prescribed, such a person should undergo the training by taking leave due for the duration of the training. A specific relaxation was given vide Memo. dated 8-5-91 of the CGM (AP). This applies only in the case of Operators seeking change of cadre to that of TAOs entirely due to departmental reasons on account of automation. In their case by this special dispensation dated 8-5-91 such persons were treated as under going 'on the job' training. It is evident that the applicant does not fall within this category and wanted a change of cadre for her own reasons. Such being the case she is not entitled to the benefit contained in Memo. dated 8-5-91 as she is fully covered by the provisions of Rule 38 (5) of P&T Manual vol. IV.

In view of this, the OA concerning prayer for extension of benefit of the Memo. dated 8-5-91 is dismissed with no order as to costs.
