The Tribunal made the following order:- ✓

In this case the learned counsel for the Applicants Shri. K. L. Narsimha draw attention to letters dated 15.10.1991 issued by the Divisional Railway Manager (P) BG/SC, Sec'bad (R-3) to the Senior Divisional Mechanical Engineer (DSL) (R-4) and another letter dated 16.7.1992 issued by the Railway Board. According to Railway Board's order, only ~~xxxxxx~~ shortfall of vacancies in the cadre of Diesel Assistants, after considering the cases of Diesel cleaners listed in Sub-para 3(c), are open to the Skilled artisans referred to in sub-para 3(d). In the order dated 15.10.1991 issued by the 3rd respondent, there is no indication that people belonging to the category of sub-para 3(c) i.e. applicants had been considered.

Sri N.V.Ramana, Standing Counsel for Railways, represented that there are no instructions and wanted time. He vehemently opposed the admission and also interim relief. Hence list this case for admission hearing on 23.1.1992. In the mean time, by way of interim order we direct the respondents not to fill up any posts of Diesel Assistants in furtherance of their circular dated 15.10.1991 (if not already made) till tomorrow.
