for retirement should not be transferred out. It is also his case that he has major domestic problems. He also alleges that the initial transfer of R-3 and the subsequent cancellation of that transfer and his posting to Bhubaneswar are all malafide. We heard the other side represented by Shri N.R. Devaraj, Sr. Standing Counsel and Shri B.G. Ravindra Reddy, learned counsel for Respondent-3. Shri N.R. Devaraj states that the applicant has been in Hyderabad right from 1966 and against this according to Shri B.G. Ravindra Reddy Respondent-3 had a number of transfers. Moreover, Respondent-3 is a physically handicapped person and he has made a representation against his transfer to Bhubaneswar. The learned counsel for the applicant stressed the fact that Respondent - 3 in pursuant to the transfer order has already taken T.A. <sup>with</sup> advance and the cancellation of transfer order was done at a later stage. The learned counsel for the applicant also states that Respondent-3 has mis-used the H.B.A. sanctioned to him. We are of the opinion that payment of advance and mis-use of H.B.A. etc. do not vitiate the case.

It is a well settled law that the transfers by the Departments are not to be interfered <sup>with</sup> by the courts unless a clear malafide intention or arbitrariness is established. We do not see any malafide intention or arbitrariness in this case. Hence we dismiss the case at the admission stage itself with no order as to costs. However, it does not preclude the department from considering any representation pending/to be received and coming to an independent conclusion thereon themselves.

In view of the orders passed in the O.A, the M.A is also disposed of with no order as to costs.
