O.A.No.744/92

Date of Order: 17.2.95

( As per Hon'ble Shri A.V.Haridasan, Member (Judl.) )

The applicant was engaged as a casual Draughtsman Grade III on daily wages continuously during the period from 21.2.86 to 31.3.87 for total number of 277 days excluding weekly holidays and national holidays. He was not engaged thereafter. The claim of the applicant is that in view of the decision of the Supreme Court in Surinder Singh and another v. Engineer-in-Chief, CPWD and others 1986 SCC (L&S) 189 and the decision taken by the Government of India pursuant that to the applicant is entitled to be absorbed against an existing or future vacancy as Draughtsman as also to payment of difference in wages between what was paid during the order and the pay applicable to the Draughtsman 'C'. The applicant has therefore filed this application for the above said reliefs finding that his representation in this regard did not yield any fruit.

2. The respondents in their reply have contended that the applicant who was engaged on daily wages left the department on his own and therefore he is not entitled to any reliefs as sought.

3. Heard learned counsel for the parties. We have also perused the pleadings and relevant documents on record. The claim of the applicant for re-engagement and regularisation in service as only to be rejected because he was disengaged in 1987 and has not made any claim for re-engagement ~~on~~ regularisation before filing this application. He had made representation of course claiming the difference in wages but this also has not given to him. In view of the government decision contained in letter of Government of India, Ministry of Urban Development dated 5.3.1990 (Annexure A-3) taken pursuant to the judgement of the Supreme Court in Surinder Singh v. Engineer-in-Chief, CPWD and others, the contention of the respondents that the applicant is not entitled to the difference in wages cannot stand. Since the applicant was admittedly working against a leave vacancy of Draughtsman Grade-III on a daily rate basis, in view of the above said decision he is entitled to get the difference between the pay and dearness allowance attached to that post for the period for which he had worked and the daily wages paid to him during the period in question.

4. In the light of what is stated above we dispose of this application with a direction to the respondents to pay the applicant the difference between the pay and dearness allowance at <sup>the</sup> minimum of the scale for the post of Draughtsman Grade III and what was already paid to him as daily wages during the period he worked with interest at <sup>per annum</sup> 12% from the date of filing of the application within a period of 3 months from the date of communication of this order. No order as to costs.
