O.A.No.771/92

O R D E R

{As per the Hon'ble Sri A.B. Gorthi, Member(A) }

This application was filed by two applicants, K. Rajaiah (1st applicant) and Ms.G. Varalakshmi (2nd applicant). Their claim was for a direction to the respondents to consider the cases for regularisation and to grant them all consequential benefits.

2. So far as the applicant No.1 is concerned, the respondents granted him the benefit of regularisation and accordingly his name is deleted from the array of the applicants and the applicant is confined to the reliefs in respect of Ms. G. Varalakshmi only.

3. Heard learned counsel for both the parties. Initially, the case of the applicant was turned down for the regularisation on the ground that they were overaged. However, there is a revision of the scheme for regularisation of casual artists in Doordarshan under which age relaxation could be given keeping in view the length of the service rendered by the casual artists. Under the revised scheme dt.17-3-94, the number of days for the purpose of regularisation would be computed on the basis of actual wages given to the casual staff artists in a month, divided by the minimum wage prevalent in the State during the relevant time of booking. Keeping in view the revised scheme the respondents regularised the services of Sri K. Rajaiah.

4. Ms. G. Varalakshmi submitted a representation to the Director, Doordarshan Kendra, Hyderabad requesting that she too should be given the benefit of the revised scheme for the purpose of regularisation of her services.

5. There is no dispute that the applicant before us (Ms. G. Varalakshmi) is entitled to have her case considered for regularisation in accordance with the revised scheme for regularisation of casual artists in Doordarshan dt.17-3-94. In view of this, and the fact that the representation made by her is pending with the authorities concerned, we dispose of the OA with a direction to the Director, Doordarshan Kendra, Hyderabad to consider the representation of the applicant in terms of the revised scheme dt.17-3-94 and grant the benefit ^{admissible &} under the scheme to the applicant. This may be done within three months from the date of communication of this order.

6. No order as to costs.
