DETAILS OF THE APPLICANT:-

Address for service of summons/notices on the applicant: X SANKA RAMA KRISHNA RAO
X ADVOCATE, 1-10-29,
ASHOKNAGAR, HYDERABAD-20

1. Particulars of the order against which the application is made:

"This Application is against the impugned Order Memo No.F.14-1/88-89, dt: 19.5.1988 of Senior
Superintendent of Post Offices, Hyderabad City
Division, Hyderabad - 1."

2. JURISDICTION OF THE TRIBUNAL:

The applicant declares that the subject matter of the order against which he wants redressal is within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal u/s.14 (1) (b) (ii) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

3. LIMITATION:

The applicant further declares that the application is within the limitation period prescribed in Section 21 (1) (a) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

4. FACTS OF THE CASE:

The applicant humbly submit that he is working as Postal Assistant in Hyderabad G.P.O. He has got about 32 years of service in the Department including 28 years as a Postal Assistant. All these years, he has been discharging his duties with utmost devotion and sincerity.

2. While working as Postal Assistant, Khairatabad, the applicant was served with a memo of charges on 19.5.1988. <sup>AN D Page 8</sup> The allegation was that the applicant was responsible for certain shortages in articles in the Postal Stores Depot, Hyderabad during the year, 1983.

3. This charge sheet was dealt with utmost leisure by the Disciplinary Authority and the Inquiry Authority. Though the charge sheet was issued some five years and one month back the case on behalf of the disciplinary authority is not yet completed. A straight witness is yet to be examined and then the entire gamut on behalf of the defence is to be completed with the speed in which the Inquiry is being conducted, it may take another one or two years to complete the case.

4. The applicant is due to retire from service on superannuation on 30.6.1993. The allegation against the applicant relates to 1983. In spite of having 10 years time, the disciplinary authority chose not to complete the proceedings before his superannuation which is a deliberate attempt to harass and financially handicap the applicant at the time of his superannuation. If a disciplinary proceedings is continuing at the time of superannuation, the applicant will be paid only a provisional pension u/r 9 of C.C.S. (Pension) Rules, 1972 and his gratuity, commutation and leave encashment worth more than Rs.1 lakh may be withheld.

Dy. Secy

(7)

5. The respondents are deliberately trying to prolong the case only to cause financial hardship to the applicant. Any inquiry so prolonged is bad in Law as observed by the Supreme Court in A.I.R. 1990 S.C. 1308. There was enough time for the respondents to complete the inquiry within ten years but even with the imminent superannuation of the applicant on 30.6.1993, there is no urgency felt by the respondents, The last sitting in the inquiry was 26.5.1993 <sup>(AND Page 7)</sup> and so far the date of next sitting has not been notified. If the respondents are allowed to continue the inquiry in this fashion, the ultimate result would be that the applicant is denied of his legitimate dues on the due date. Eventhough any irregularities were proved against the applicant on an ~~irregularity~~ irregularity committed in 1983, the punishment if any would have been over much before 1993 and the applicant would have been allowed to retire with whatever benefits he was due to get. But the deliberate delay being caused in the inquiry is only for the purpose that the applicant should retire with no benefit even after 33 years sincere service.

6. Since the respondents had ten years to dispose the case against the applicant and five years, one month even after the issue of the charge sheet, the action of the respondents in not completing the inquiry before superannuation is unjustified.

7. Hence, this humble application before the Hon'ble Tribunal.

5. GROUNDS FOR RELIEF WITH LEGAL PROVISIONS:

The applicant was charge-sheeted on 19.5.1988 for certain irregularities alleged to have been committed during the year, 1983. there was abnormal delay in issue of the chargesheet. Even after issue of the charge sheet the inquiry against the applicant was conducted in a very leisurely manner and after five years and one month of the charge sheet. The case on behalf of the disciplinary authority is yet to be presented before the Inquiry Officer. The inordinate delay in the issue of the charge sheet and in the conduct of the inquiry is unjustified as observed by the Supreme Court in case A.I.R. 1990 S.C. 1308. The applicant is due to retire on superannuation on 30.6.1993 and as per Rule 9 of C.C.S. (Pension) Rules, 1972, the applicant would be paid only provisional pension. The liabilities to be discharged by the applicant anticipating the pensionary benefits would be upset by the deliberate delay caused by the Inquiry Officer and Disciplinary Authority in the case. In view of the heavy delay, with-holding of pensionary benefits of the applicant is unjustified.

6. DETAILS OF THE REMEDIES EXHAUSTED.

The applicant declares that he has availed of all the remedies available to him under the relevant service rules.

Aggrieved against the inordinate delay in conducting inquiry by the Inquiry Officer, the application represented verbally to by respondents to complete the inquiry as early as possible as he was retiring on 30.6.1993. Consequently a sitting of the inquiry was held on 26.5.1993 and inspite of repeated verbal representations, the respondents seem to be not interested to conclude the inquiry before 30.6.1993 i.e. the date of retirement on superannuation of the applicant. Therefore, the applicant has no other alternative except to approach this Hon'ble Tribunal to seek direction to the respondent to complete the inquiry proceedings before his retirement.

Hence, this application before the Hon'ble Tribunal.

Agony

7. MATTERS NOT PREVIOUSLY FILED OR PENDING WITH ANY OTHER COURT:

The applicant further declares that he had not previously filed any application, writ petition or suit regarding the matter in respect of which this application has been made before any court or any other authority or any other Bench of the Tribunal nor any such application Writ Petition or suit is pending before any of them.

8. RELIEF(S) SOUGHT:

In view of the facts mentioned in para (4) above the applicant prays for the following relief(s). Amended with the permission of the Hon'ble Tribunal,

It is prayed that the Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased (a) to declare the action of the Respondents in initiating disciplinary proceedings after long delay as illegal and contrary to the principles of natural justice and consequently quash it to direct the respondents to complete the inquiry before Charge Memo. or as expeditiously as possible (b) to further declare that the applicant is entitled to all consequential benefits. ~~and pass such other and further order or orders~~ as the Hon'ble Tribunal may deem fit.

9. INTERIM ORDERS IF ANY PRAYED FOR:

Pending final decision on the application, the applicant seeks the following interim relief:

The applicant humbly prays that the Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased to order the respondents to pay his retirement gratuity, commutation and leave salary encashment on the date of his superannuation in view of the heavy delay in the conduct of the inquiries, pending disposal of the O.A. and pass such other and appropriate orders as deemed fit.

10. NOT APPLICABLE.

ANNEXURE - I

Statement of Articles of Charge framed against Sri. D. Anjaneyulu the then PA PSD Hyderabad and now PA Khairatabad HO. Hyderabad-500 004.

ARTICLE - I

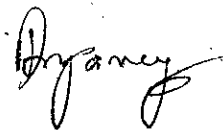

The said Sri. D. Anjaneyulu while functioning as Postal Assistant (Procurement) PSD Hyderabad and Custodian of paper stock during June, 1983 did not handover correct stock of white printing paper size 17"x27" to his successor and handed over the paper with a shortage of 512.269 reams and thereby caused loss of about Rs. 46,907.48 to the Department. Thus the said Sri. D. Anjaneyulu by his above act failed to maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty and contravened the provisions of Rule-3(1)(i) and (ii) of C.C.S.(Conduct) Rules-1964.

ARTICLE - II

That during the aforesaid period and while functioning in the aforesaid office the said Sri. D. Anjaneyulu, failed to account for the correct stock of white printing paper (Size 27"x34") at the time of physical verification and handing over stock to his successor resulting in shortage of WPP 140 reams and loss of Rs. 25,627.00 to the Department.

Thus the said Sri. D. Anjaneyulu failed to maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty contravening the provisions of Rule 3(1)(i) & (ii) of C.C.S.(Conduct) Rules-1964.

ANNEXURE - II

Statement of imputation of misconduct or misbehaviour in support of the articles of charge framed against Sri. D. Anjaneyulu the then PA PSD and now PA Khairatabad HO., Hyderabad- 500 004.

A R T I C L E - I

Sri. D. Anjaneyulu, worked as PA(PF) in the PSD Hyderabad during June, 1983. He was the joint custodian of paper stock kept in various godowns. The paper stock size 17"x27" was kept in Walker-town Godown. According to the stock register of white printing paper size 17"x27" the stock was 4342.290 as on 11.04.1983 and there was no issue upto 21.06.1983. The stock of paper kept in Walker Town Godowns was handed over by him to Sri.Ch.Yadagiri on 21.06.1983. But in the physical verification report prepared on 01.07.1983 the stock of paper of size 17"x27" kept in Walker-town Godown was shown as 3830.021 reams while the stock register showed 4342.021 reams. This actually (3830.021 reams) represented the actual stock of paper (17"x27") as on 21.06.1983 handed over to the new incumbents. Thus it is seen that the stock actually handed over was 3830.021. When this is compared with the entries dated 21.06.1983 in the stock register there was shortage of 512.269 reams.

In his statement Sri. D. Anjaneyulu, before the ASRM PSD Hyderabad on 17.12.1983, has admitted that he had handed over the WPP (17"x27") short to the extent of 512.269 reams to Sri. Ch.Yadagiri and V.R. Challa when he made over the charge to them.

Thus he said Sri. D. Anjaneyulu as PA(PF) did not hand over the stock of paper correctly and properly, resulting in shortage of paper 512.269 reams worth Rs. 46,90.45 causing loss to the Government. Thus he failed to maintain absolute integrity contravening the provisions of Rule-3(1)(i) of C.C.S. (Conduct) Rule-1964.

A R T I C L E - II

Sri. D. Anjaneyulu, Postal Assistant, Khairatabad HO worked as PA PSD Hyderabad and custodian of white printing paper during June, 1983. While handing over charge to Sri. Ch. Yadagiri, PA and Sri. V.R.Challa, AMSD(Invoice) the stock of paper kept in various godowns were verified and a statement showing the position of WPP as on 01.07.1983 was prepared and signed by Sri. D. Anjaneyulu and Sri. Ch.Yadagiri.

Contd..2/p..

D. Anjaneyulu

As per the stock register the stock of white-printing paper was as follows:

Size WPP 27" x 34"

As on 25.05.83 ..... 3,990.164 reams

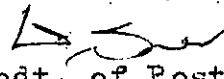

At the time of physical verification the stock was found to be ... 3,850.164 reams

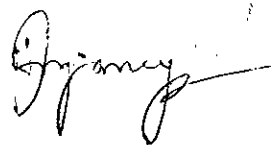

Thus the shortage arrived at was 140.00 reams

There was no receipt and issue WPP size 27" x 34" after 25.05.1983 to the end of June, 1983.

In his statement dated 17.12.1983 given before ASRM 13D Hyderabad Sri. D. Anjaneyulu admitted that there was shortage of 140 reams of paper (27" x 34") when he handed over the charge to Sri. Ch. Yadagiri and V.R.Challa AMSD and also admitted that he did not make any efforts to reconcile the same. A note to the effect of shortage of 150 reams (instead of 140 reams 150 was wrongly noted) in respect of WPP size 27" x 34" was made on 04.07.1983 in the physical verification statement signed by Sri. D. Anjaneyulu and by Sri. Ch. Yadagiri.

Thus the said Sri. D. Anjaneyulu as PA PF did not hand over the stock of paper of size 27"x34" correctly and properly resulting in shortage of paper of 140 reams worth Rs. 25,627.00 causing loss to the Government. Thus he failed to maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty.

COUNTER AFFIDAVIT FILED ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS:

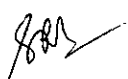

I, K. Sandhya Rani, D/O Sri K. Papa Rao aged 31 years Occupation Government Service, do hereby solemnly affirm and state as follows:

1. That, I am Assistant Postmaster General (S&V) in the Office of the Chief Postmaster General, A.P. Circle, Hyderabad and as such I am well acquainted with the facts of the case.
I am filing this counter affidavit for myself and on behalf of the other Respondents as I have been authorised to do so.
The material averments in the O.A. are denied save those that are expressly admitted herein. The Applicant is put to strict proof of such averments except those that are specifically admitted hereunder.

2. It is submitted that common proceedings were initiated against the Applicant along with one V.R. Chella who were responsible for shortage of 140 reams of paper worth Rs. 25,627-00 and the enquiry was in progress. The Applicant retired on 30-6-93 and just a few days before his retirement, he filed the present O.A. on 21-6-93 seeking a direction to complete the inquiry before 30-6-93. As the O.A. has not been disposed of before the date of his retirement and the Applicant had retired, the prayer has been amended now seeking a direction to declare the disciplinary proceedings after a long delay as illegal and against the principles of natural justice.

3. The delay in completing the enquiry is partly attributable to the Applicant as he had sought a number of adjournments on one pretext or the other and used to submit petition challenging the appointment of Inquiry Officer, continuance of inquiry and partly on administrative grounds.

4. The applicant and one Sri V.R.Chella while working as Postal Assistant and Assistant Manager at Postal Stores Depot, Hyderabad were found responsible for shortage of paper. Memo. of charges under Rule 14 of CCS (CCA) Rules 1965 were issued to the applicant and Sri V.R.Chella on 19-5-1988. As two applicants were involved in the shortage of paper, the facts and circumstances of the case are same, the case was referred to the DG Posts, New Delhi on 7-7-88 for obtaining sanction of the President under Rule-18 of CCS(CCA) Rules. The DG Posts in Memo. No. 54/52/87 Vig.III dated 29th August 1988 conveyed the approval of the President that the Disc. action against both the officials shall be taken in common proceedings and Director of Postal Services, Northern Region, Hyderabad will function as the Disc. authority for the purpose of common proceeding and shall be competent to impose all the penalties specified in Rule-11 of CCS(CCA) Rules 1965.

5. By order dated 30-1-89 Sri M.A.Rasheed Siddiqui was appointed as Enquiry Officer and Sri C.Seshachary IPO (Printing) as Presenting Officer. The Enquiry officer held first sitting on 15-2-89 in which both the officials denied charges. In the sitting held on 17-7-89 and 29-3-89, the applicant and the official inspected the original documents listed in Memo. of charges. Additional documents requisitioned by the applicant and other official were perused in the sittings held on 19-10-89, 28-11-89, 30-1-90 and 19-3-90.

6. Sri M.A.Rasheed Siddiqui, Inquiring Officer retired on 31-8-91. Therefore by order dated 7-11-91 Sri G.Subbarayudu OSD, % CPMG Hyderabad was appointed as Inquiring Officer. The Inquiring Officer held sittings on 13-1-92 and 16-1-92. On both occasions the applicant requested for postponement of inquiry on ground that this AGS was on leave; and on the second occasion on health grounds. In the sittings held on 12-3-92, 13-3-92, the ~~adduce~~ evidence on behalf of the Disc. authority by examining PW2 was taken. While examining the PW3 the inquiry was postponed. In the mean while Sri G.Subbarayudu, OSD functioning as Inquiring Officer retired and by order dated 28-12-92 Sri M.Venkata Reddy, OSD was appointed as Inquiring Officer. At this stage the applicant submitted a representation dated 7-1-93 to the Chief Postmaster General, A.P.Circle, Hyderabad contending that the appointment of Sri G.Subbarayudu, OSD by order dated 7-11-91 by the Sr. Supdt. of Post Offices, Hyderabad City Dn. was vitiated by illegality since the Sr.Supdt. of Post Offices is not competent to appoint enquiry officer. As the legality of appointment of ~~Inquiry~~ Inquiring Officer was questioned, the Inquiry Officer suspended further proceedings till disposal of the petition. The Chief Postmaster General considered his representation and disposed of the same on 12-4-93 observing that SSPOs, Hyderabad City Division who is the Disc. Authority is competent to appoint Inquiry Officer. There is no illegality in that. By that time Sri M.Venkata Reddy, OSD was reverted back to his lower post.

7. By an order dated 12-4-93 Sri G.Buddappa, OSD was appointed as Inquiring Officer. The Inquiring Officer notified sitting on 26/27-5-93. This was postponed in view of the request made by the applicant that his AGS is not in position to attend the inquiry. The applicant retired on superannuation on 30th June 1993. In the sitting held on 16-7-93 the examination of witnesses on behalf of Disc. Authority was completed.

It is submitted that in terms of the provisions contained in Rule 9 of the CCS (Pension) Rules, 1972, the enquiry proceedings initiated while the Applicant was in service can be continued and concluded.

For all the reasons stated above, there are no merits in the O.A. and this Honourable Tribunal may be pleased to dismiss the same with such other orders as may be deemed necessary in the circumstances of the case.

Judgement

( As per Hon. Mr. Justice V. Neeladri Rao, V.C. )

Heard Sri S. Ramakrishna Rao, learned counsel for the applicant, and Sri V. Bhimanna, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. Charge memo dated 19-5-1988 was issued to the applicant alleging that ~~he was responsible for the shortage of papers~~ that he alongwith Sri V.R. Chella, Assistant Manager(Stores) at the relevant time were responsible for shortage of 140 reams of paper worth Rs.25,627/-. Similar charge memo was also issued to Mr. V.R. Chella. As it is felt that it is necessary to conduct joint enquiry against both the applicant and Sri V.R. Chella, permission of the President was sought and for having common inquiry that permission was given on 29-8-1988. By order dated 30-11-1989, Sri M.A. Rasheed Siddiqui was appointed as Inquiry Officer and Sri C. Seshachary was appointed as Presenting Officer.

3. This DA was filed on 21-6-1993 praying for a direction to the respondents to complete the inquiry before 30-6-1993 as the applicant was going to be retired by that date. The said prayer was amended on 26-7-1993 as per order of this Tribunal in xxxxxxxxxxxx praying for declaration that the action of the respondents in initiating disciplinary proceedings after long delay is illegal and contrary to the Principles of Natural Justice and for consequential quashing of the charge memo and for further declaration that the applicant is entitled for all consequential benefits.

4. In paras 5, 6 & 7 of the reply statement the various proceedings which had taken place in the inquiry against the applicant and Sri V.R. Chella were referred to ~~in~~ the reply <sup>was</sup> filed on 11-11-1992. They indicate that the delay in the inquiry to some extent is due to the applicant and or Sri V.R. Chella, the other delinquent employee. Hence, it cannot be stated that there was inordinate delay <sup>due to respondents</sup> in the inquiry after the charge memo was issued in 1988.

5. It is now submitted for the respondents that the delinquent officers had again taken 6 months time on the ground that the AGs Government Servant assisting them had gone abroad.

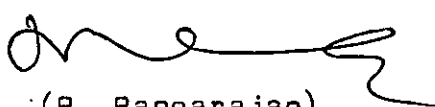

6. During the course of argument in this OA, the learned counsel for the applicant submitted that there was inordinate delay in issual of charge memo, for it was issued in 1988 in regard to the alleged <sup>out</sup> charge sheet of 1983. But ~~when~~ the same was not pleaded, the respondents had no <sup>occasion</sup> taken ~~action~~ to traverse it. But the ~~oral~~ <sup>oral</sup> submission of the applicant indicates that there was a preliminary inquiry and the concerned authority might have taken considerable long time to <sup>come to</sup> prima-facie ~~come to~~ conclusion as to which of the employees are responsible for the shortage.

7. It is now well settled that delay perse is not a ground either for quashing charge memo or the inquiry proceedings. It depends upon the gravity of the charge. The charge refers to the alleged shortage of papers worth about <sup>Rs 25,000/-</sup> ~~Rs.25 thousand~~. Further, there is no plea to the effect that ~~there is a~~ <sup>due to</sup> delay, prejudice is caused to the applicant in defending his case in the inquiry.

8. Hence, there are no grounds for quashing the charge
~~or~~ charge memo or enquiry.

9. But we feel that it is just and proper to give direction to dispose of the common inquiry against the applicant and Sri V.R. Chella, expeditiously and preferably by 31-10-1995, Especially when both of them retired in 1993. We hope that in their own interest, the applicant and the other delinquent employee will co-operate for the expeditious disposal of the matter.

10. Subject to the above the OA is dismissed. No costs.//
