his transfer from Pulivendla to Adoni, he was transferred to Adoni by proceedings dated 3-5-1993 of R-2. The applicant had taken charge at Adoni on the forenoon of 11-6-1993 (vide annexure-4). The applicant was transferred by proceedings dated 11-8-1993 of R-2 to Proddatur. The same is assailed in this OA. One of the contentions for the applicant is that when he was transferred to Adoni at his request only about three months back and when he joined there at Adoni about two months back after foregoing TA & DA, there is no justification in transferring him from Adoni.

3. Sri N.R. Devaraj, learned ^{standing} counsel, submitted that he had written instructions to state that the union represented that such of the Postal Assistants who are promoted on BCR Scheme should not be posted to small Head Offices like Adoni and when the office of R-2 was not aware of the joining of the applicant at Adoni and when they were under the impression that the applicant was still at Pulivendla, he was transferred and posted at Proddatur, a big post office. And when the factum of applicant joining at Adoni came to the knowledge of R-2, when this OA was filed, it was decided to review the order of transfer of the applicant to Adoni and hence the status-quo which was passed yesterday (i.e. 23-8-93) may be allowed to continue, Wrote the said standing counsel.

4. In the result, this OA is disposed of at the admission stage by directing to continue the status-quo as on yesterday ~~to continue~~ till a decision is taken by R-2.

No costs.
