due to the applicant on the footing that he had qualified against the 29th vacancy at the given selection."

3. The respondents submit that the applicant was selected to the post of JTO against the 29th vacancy in the Andhra Pradesh Circle and he has also been interpolated in the select panel but the only consequential benefits, such as, fixation of his pay and arrears, if any, thereto have to be paid to him. The respondents submit that they are preparing the gradation list and on that basis pay fixation will be done and arrears will be given and that the said compliance will take some time as the gradation is yet to be finalised.

4. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant will be satisfied if his pay fixation has been done on par with his juniors who were selected and his arrears are paid to him forthwith. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the applicant's pay will be fixed at par with his juniors in the select list and arrears will be paid within a period of thirty days from today.

5. In view of the above submissions, the C.P. is closed. The respondents shall ensure that the pay fixation of the applicant is done within the stipulated period and arrears paid to him.
