Interim Order

(As per Hon. Mr. Justice V. Neeladri Rao, Vice Chairman)

Heard Sri N. Ram Mohan Rao, learned counsel for the applicants and Sri K. Bhaskar Rao, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. Admit.

3. It is necessary to refer to the following facts for consideration in regard to interim order pending disposal of this OA :-

All these 15 applicants were engaged on time-scale as against temporary posts of Computers created for 1991 Census. The impugned orders are issued to the applicants retrenching them with effect from 31-12-93, as the sanction for those posts is only upto 31-12-1993.

4. It is stated for the applicants that 72 posts were sanctioned with regard to Computers in the office of the Director, Census Operation, AP, Hyderabad, R-3, and as only 53 Computers are working in the said posts, still 19 regular posts are available and as such the petitioners can be permitted to work in those posts.

5. But it is stated for the respondents that only 61 regular posts of Computers are available in the office of R-3 after abolishing the posts created for 1991 Census and two posts ~~abolished~~ in regard to 1981 Census. It is further stated for the respondents that 55 are working in those 61 posts. But on verification it is stated that Sri B. Jaya Raju, at Serial No.25 of the list furnished is abstaining and Sri John Benny, at serial no.1 is working in the leave vacancy in^{as} Statistical Assistant and that leave expires by the end of February, 1994. Four posts of Investigators will be abolished with effect from 28-2-1994 and so four will be reverted as Computers.

Therefore there will be only two vacancies in the sanctioned posts of Computers and they~~are~~ are the posts sanctioned at the time of 1981 Census. The letter dated 21-12-1993 of the office of the Registrar General India is referred to state that those who are recruited towards the temporary posts sanctioned for 1991 should not be adjusted towards the vacant posts sanctioned at the time of 1981 Census. Hence it is stated that even though eight vacancies may now be available in the⁶¹ sanctioned posts of Computers, after 31-12-93, these applicants who were recruited towards temporary posts sanctioned for 1991 after their retrenchment.

6. It is not stated for the respondents that there will be proposals for reduction of the number of Computers for R-3 office after 31-12-1993.^{So} we feel that 21-12-93 letter ~~modification~~^{might have been} issued under the apprehension that if the computers or other employees who are recruited for the temporary posts and who will be facing retrenchment on the abolition of those posts, may claim regul^{ari}gations if they are going to be adjusted towards regular posts.

7. But when the sanctioned posts are there, and when the work is available, and when those who worked for more than two years are facing retrenchment, we feel that it is just and proper to give a direction to continue such number of applicants who are necessary to man the remaining out of 61 sanctioned posts after 31-12-1993 by making it clear that it will be only by way of adhoc arrangement and they have to be replaced by regular recruitees if regular recruitment is going to be held and they will not have any right of regularisation. Ofcourse, the number of vacancies from out of those sanctioned posts will become less after the end of February, 1994. Then there may be necessity to retrench some of those who are going to be continued after 31-12-1993 by this order.

S/shree G. Venkateswara Rao, B.VV Satyanarayana, and Balla Reddy belong to SC Community, and hence they can be continued beyond 31-12-1993 as per this interim order. It is also stated that Kum. V. Sridevi, is orthopeadically handicapped and she may also be continued beyond 31-12-93.

For manning the remaining four posts from 1-1-1994, four out of the remaining applicants on the basis of their rankings have to be continued. Ofcourse, if no other factor arises after February, 1994, there may be chance for continuation of only the SC candidates, and if possible Kum. Sridevi also.

9. It is stated that order dated 28-12-1993 is issued for extension of the services of three SC candidates referred to and Sri N. Amerender, who is stated to be the first in the ranking till 28-2-94. The above order was evidently issued in pursuance of the extension of the services of four higher grade Estimators till 28-2-1994.

10. Anyhow, it is necessary for the R-3 to pass modified order by the end of February, 1994, by keeping in view this interim order, if it is not going to be modified before that date.

11. The above order is passed as interim order until further orders. Call on 21-1-1994 for reply in the meanwhile.
