OA.1163/93

Judgement

( As per Hon. Mr. AB Gorthi, Member (Administration) )

Heard Sri A.V. Dhanumjaya Rao, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri C.V. Malla Reddy, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The relief claimed by the applicant is for a direction to the respondents to provide her appointment on compassionate grounds.

3. The husband of the applicant was working as Shed Khalasi in the Electrical Loco-Shed, office of the Senior Divisional Electrical Engineer, Visakhapatnam. He died on 23-8-1992 leaving behind him, his wife, two minor children and old parents. The applicant approached the authorities concerned requesting ~~them~~ for appointment on compassionate grounds.

4. The respondents in their counter affidavit have stated that the representations made by the applicant were duly considered and she was called for screening on 20-8-1993 to assess her suitability for employment in any Group-D posts. She was found suitable and her name is brought on-to a panel. The respondents clarified that presently there are 163 female candidates on the panel awaiting their turn for appointment on compassionate grounds. The applicant's name is at Serial No.162. The respondents explained that the applicant would be appointed in a Group-D post as and when her turn comes.

5. None of the facts in this case are in dispute. In view of the categorical assurance given by the respondents that the applicant would be given appointment on compassionate grounds according to her turn, we may dispose of this application with a direction to the respondents to intimate the applicant well in advance as and when her turn is about to come for appointment on compassionate grounds. No order as to costs.
