Heard Shri Pathrudu for Shri P.B.Vijay Kumar for the applicants. Shri N.R.Devaraj, standing counsel for the Respondents. Original Application No 1168/92 was dismissed on the same by order dt.6-12-93. The main point that was considered in that O.A. was whether the applicants had submitted their representation for entering their names in the supplementary live register before the prescribed date. After going through the records and also after hearing the learned counsel, this Bench came to the conclusion that there is no record of proof that the applicants had applied within the stipulated date for registering their names in the supplementary live register.

2. This R.A. is filed by the applicants and it is reported that they have filed their representations. But even in this R.A. no satisfactory proof is provided. In the absence of any satisfactory proof that the applicants had submitted their applications for inclusion of their name in the supplementary live register, no direction can be given. Hence this R.A. is liable to be dismissed.

3. However, the applicants are free to check whether their names are entered in the supplementary live register and to produce satisfactory proof which will satisfy the respondents that they have submitted their application within stipulated period for inclusion of their name in the supplementary live register. Then the respondents may take action as deemed fit.

4. The Review Application is dismissed with the above observation. No order as to costs.
