Order of the Division Bench delivered by Hon'ble Shri A.B.Gorthi, Member(Admn.).

In this Contempt Petition, the allegation is that the respondents have wilfully disobeyed our order dated 28.9.93<sup>by</sup>/~~date~~ which the OA was disposed of.

2. Aggrieved by an order dated 13.9.93 imposing recovery of pay and allowances for 2 days (26.8.92 and 27.8.92) the applicant filed O.A.1222/93.

3. The contention of the learned counsel for the applicant in the Contempt Petition is that although the Tribunal vide order dt. 28.9.93 directed the respondents not to make any recovery as already ordered on 13.9.93, the respondents went ahead effecting the recovery. Refuting the contention of the Contempt Petitioner Mr.N.V.Raghava Reddy, Standing Counsel for the respondents clarified that the pay bills in respect of the affected employees were prepared prior to the date of the order of the Tribunal. As 30.9.93 was a Bank holiday, the respondents despatched the salary bills on 28.9.93 itself prior to the receipt of the order of the Tribunal. Thus, the contention of the respondents is that they acted in the absence of any knowledge of the Tribunal's order and that they had not committed any contempt.

4. Having heard learned counsel for both the parties we deem <sup>it</sup> just and proper to dispose of the Contempt Petition with a direction to the respondents to consider and dispose of the representations pending with them, on or before 20.11.1993. Depending on the decision taken on the representations the question of refund of the recoveries already effected will be considered by the respondents within a period of one week thereafter.

There shall be no order as to costs.
