In this application the prayer is for a direction to the Respondents to give the applicant employment assistance on compassionate grounds. The applicant's husband died on 3-12-92 while working as Shed Kalasi in the Electrical Loco Shed of Sr.Divisional E.E., Visakhapatnam. The family of the deceased comprises the young widow and her two children, a daughter aged 5 years and son aged one year. She had requested the authorities concerned to give her appointment on compassionate grounds on 28-1-93 but her request has not yet been acceded to.

2. The Respondents in their reply have stated that there was a difference in the date of birth of the applicant shown in the school certificate and in the Heirship certificate, that explanation sought from the applicant is yet to be received and that as many as the 170 cases which were cleared for employment on compassionate appointments are yet to be made for want of vacancies, even if the ~~case of~~ the applicant is approved she is not likely to be actually appointed for quite some time.

3. The Respondents do not dispute the fact that the family of the applicant is in indigent circumstances, and that the husband of the applicant died in harness. The applicant as a young widow saddled with the liability of bringing up two very young children. Therefore the case of the applicant requires immediate sympathetic consideration for employment assistance. Regarding the discrepancy on the date of birth of the applicant, it is expected that the applicant would give an early reply. Even otherwise the respondents may proceed on the basis that the correct date of birth is that which is shown in the school certificate. The Respondents may process the case on that basis to avoid delay.

4. In the result, as the case of the applicant needs immediate consideration and employment assistance, the respondents are directed to consider the case of the applicant without delay as a special case and to provide her with employment at the earliest if she is not otherwise ineligible for such appointment.

5. The application is ordered accordingly. No order as to costs.
