O.A.NO.1031/93

JUDGMENT

(AS PER HON'BLE SHRI JUSTICE V.NEELADRI RAO, VICE CHAIRMAN)

-ly

The applicant was engaged as Physical/Handicapped Public Telephone Attendant on commission basis with effect from 20.12.1982 and by the date of the impugned order, he was attending to the public telephone situated in the Central Telegraph Office at Hyderabad. The charge memo dated 4.8.1993 which reads as under was issued to the applicant:-

"Sri C.Mohan Reddy, Physically Handicapped STD/PT Attendant C T O Hyderabad is habitual in remaining absent for duty without permission. During November 1992, he absented from 17th to 30th for 14 days, in December 92 1st to 16th for 16 days neglecting the work or duty which amounts to misconduct.

Sri C.Mohan Reddy Physically Handicapped STD/PT attendant C T O Hyderabad on the afternoon of 9.7.93 approached and asked the Accounts Officer about the position of his commission bill. The Accounts Officer explained him that the payment could be made as soon as the information sought from the Asst.Chief Superintendent (IR) was received, but Sri C.Mohan Reddy insisted on the Accounts Officer to make payment without any checking. In spite of repeated replies of Accounts Officer that the payment is made only after meter readings are checked, Sri C.Mohan Reddy went on insisting vociferously for payment by not leaving Accounts Officer's chamber causing inconvenience to him to discharge his daytoday duties as Accounts Officer. Thus he misbehaved with Accounts Officer C.T.O. Hyderabad.

Sri C.Mohan Reddy is directed to submit his explanation within 10 days of the receipt of this memorandum failing which exparte decision will be taken against him."
