O.A. 267/93

Dt. of Decision : 19.1.94

ORDER

As per Hon'ble Shri A.B. Gorthi, Member (Admn.)

The facts of the case, as also the questions of laws raised therein are similar to those in O.A.No.265/93 which we have separately disposed of today. Accordingly we disposed of this application, also with the following directions to the respondents.

1) Should the respondents require the services of Unskilled Casual Labour, the applicant will be engaged as such, in preference to freshers.

2) Should there be any vacancy coming up in a regular post under the respondents, the case of the applicant will be considered for appointment giving preference ^{of} to him due to the fact ~~that all~~ his service with the respondent organisation, provided ^{he} is otherwise eligible in all respects for such appointment.

3) The question of regularly absorbing the applicant also will be considered in accordance with the scheme that is applicable to Casual Labour employed under the Ministry of Defence.

2. No order as to Costs.
