Enquiry Officer was in May, 1993. In the counter filed by the Respondents on 7-7-93 it was alleged that ~~as~~ the Enquiry Officer ^{could} ~~cannot~~ hold ~~an~~ continuous sittings due to administrative exigencies. Para-4 of D.G.Posts letter No.294/90-(E)1 Trg., dt.26-7-90 states that cases of put off duty for 45 days ~~are~~ should be brought to the personnel notice of Chief P.M.G./P.M.G/Regional PMG who should issue proper directions in this regard. It may be noted that when earlier instructions prescribed 120 days for bringing to the personnel notice of the higher authority it was reduced to 45 days.. It thus indicates that the enquiries in cases where Extra Departmental ^{employees} ~~people~~ are placed on put off duty, have to be disposed expeditiously. But it is evident that inspite of urgency to be ^{felt} ~~felt~~ as per the directions, even the charge memo was issued about more than five months after the applicant was placed on put off duty, and there was only one sitting within about six months from the ~~xxx~~ date on which the enquiry officer was appointed. So we feel that it is proper to direct the Enquiry Officer to dispose of the enquiry ~~xxx~~ expeditiously. It is stated that the applicant had never requested for adjournment and he is not going to request for adjournment. The 2nd Respondent had to bring to the notice of 1st Respondent in the named cover about the monthly progress in regard to the enquiry against the applicant. ^{has} The first report in regard to the same ~~have~~ ^{has} to be sent by 6-9-93, if the enquiry cannot be completed by then.

It is needless to say that in such a case 1st Respondent ^{has} ~~have~~ to issue the necessary instructions for expediting ^{ous} disposal of the enquiry, and he should consider about the revocation ^c of order of put off duty if the enquiry cannot be completed expeditiously. If there is going to be in-ordinate delay ^{in completion of enquiry}, the applicant is free to move this Tribunal by way of M.A. under Rule 26 of the Procedure Rules.

3. The O.A. is ordered accordingly. No costs.
