JUDGMENT OF THE DIVISION BENCH DELIVERED BY THE HON'BLE
SHRI V.NEELADRI RAO, VICE CHAIRMAN

The applicant is working as Extra Departmental Packer in Sai Nagar Post Office, Anantapur. A notification dated 19.7.1990 was issued for recruitment to the post of Postman. The said notification indicates that the total vacancies including the anticipated vacancies upto 31.12.90 would come to 9 and out of them, 5 are for departmental quota and 4 are for Extra Departmental Agents. The said ~~notification does not indicate~~ that any post is reserved for SC in the quota of EDAs. The Superintendent of Post Offices, Anantapur Division issued the proceedings dated 21.2.1991. It discloses that 8 were selected for appointment as Postman in pursuance of the notification referred to above. It is contended for the applicant that even though no vacancy was reserved for SC as per the notification dated 19.7.1990, one was selected in the SC quota, and hence the selection of the candidate under the said quota is illegal.

2. The applicant submitted a representation on 23.1.1992 challenging the appointment of the candidate under SC quota. It is stated that the said representation is still pending.

3. In the circumstances, we feel that it is just and proper to direct the respondent No.1, viz., the Superintendent of Post Offices, Anantapur, to dispose of the said representation dated 23.1.1992 within three months from the date of receipt of this order. It is needless to say that if the applicant is aggrieved by the order on the said representation and if he is so advised, he is free to move this Tribunal against that order.

4. The OA is ordered accordingly at the admission stage. No costs.
