Judgement

( As per Hon. Mr. Justice V. Neeladri Rao, V.C. )

Heard Shri Ch. Jagannatha Rao, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri N.V. Ramana, learned standing counsel for the official respondents and Sri ~~R.S.R.~~ Anjaneyulu, learned counsel for R-4 and Sri D. Linga Rao, learned counsel for the R.5.

2. The applicant herein submitted an application for post of EDBPM, Dammannapet under Karimnagar District in pursuance of notification dated 8-2-1993. R-1 the competent authority issued a fresh notification dated B2/D-pef/93, dated 31-3-1993 calling applications for the same post. It is stated for the respondents that as the applications received in pursuance of the notification dated 8-2-1993 were in-complete, the ~~latyer~~ notification dated 31-3-1993 was issued. In pursuance of the ~~latyer~~ notification R-4, and R-5 and <sup>however</sup> some others submitted their applications. But the applicant <sup>however</sup> had not submitted an application in pursuance of the ~~later~~ notification.

3. This OA was filed praying for a declaration that the applicant is entitled for selection and appointment in preference to R-4 and R-5 in regard to the post of EDBPM, Dammannapet. When the applicant had not submitted any application in pursuance of the later notification dated 31-3-1993, the question of considering his case does not arise. It is only the case of the persons who submitted the applications in pursuance of the notifications issued, ~~alone~~ have to be considered. When the case of the applicant cannot be considered at all as he has not submitted the application the question of preferential claim of the applicant does not arise.

4. We have to make it clear that the applicant had not prayed for declaration that the later notification is illegal. As such it is not necessary to consider for disposal of this application as to whether there was justification for issual of later notification dated 31-3-1993.

5. In the result, the OA is dismissed. No costs.
