In this application filed under Section 19 of the A.T Act, the grievances of the applicant are that his pay for the month of August, 1994 was withheld by order dated 22-8-94 on the ground that he did not submit his self-appraisal report for the purpose of processing <sup>the</sup> A.C.R. and that the Respondents have not posted him on inspection duty in which he claims to be an expert.

3. When the application came up for hearing on admission, the applicant appeared in person and Shri G. Parameshwara Rao appeared for the Respondents.

4. The learned counsel for the Respondents to withdraw the order dated 22-8-94 and to pay the applicant his salary for the month of August, 1994 which has been withheld.

5. Regarding the second relief prayed for <sup>by</sup> the applicant, the learned counsel for the Respondents states that it is <sup>the</sup> prerogative of the competent authority to deploy the employees under his control and the employee has no right to claim that he should be assigned a particular duty or posted in a particular post. We agree with this statement. The applicant when he is posted in a post commensurate with his status and pay, cannot claim that he should be deployed on a particular duty.

6. Hence <sup>noting</sup> ~~on the basis of~~ <sup>allotment</sup> the undertaking given by the learned counsel for the Respondents that he would advise the Respondents to release the pay of the applicant for the month of August, 1994 immediately, the application is disposed of at the admission stage itself.
No costs.
