O.A.No.1137/94

Dt. 20.9.94

XAs per Hon'ble Shri A.V.Haridasan, Member(Judl.) X

The applicant who had rendered about 300 days of casual service under the respondents and had been subsequently disengaged has filed this application praying that the termination of his services may be declared as illegal with consequential benefits.

2. When the application came up for admission today Mr.K.Bhaskara Rao, learned standing counsel for the respondents submits that the respondents would consider in engaging the applicant if there is any vacancy in preference to freshers and those who rendered less service. In view of the statement of the counsel at the bar the learned counsel for the applicant submits that the application may be disposed of with a direction to the respondents to consider the applicant for reengagement. Hence the application is disposed of at the admission stage itself with a direction to the respondents to consider reengagement of the applicant as and when work is available in preference to persons who have rendered lesser days of service than the applicant.

There is no order as to costs.
