O.A.1246/94.

Dt. of Order:19-7-95.

(Order passed by Hon'ble Shri A.B.Gorthi, Member (A) ).

The claim of the applicant is for a direction to the Respondents to grant him Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance and other incidental charges consequential to his transfer from Ujhar, Nasik to Hyderabad.

2. The applicant is a permanent staff member of the Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO), having joined that organisation on 20-4-81 in the grade of Senior Scientific Assistant. He was subsequently promoted as Jr. Scientific Officer and while working thus he xxx applied, in response to a notification of the Union Public Service Commission, for the post of Sr. Scientific Officer, Gr.II in the Defence Aeronautical Quality Assurance Services in the Directorate of Technical Development & Production (Air) under the Department of Defence Production and Supplies, Ministry of Defence, was selected and was offered the temporary post of Sr. Scientific Officer, Gr.II. Consequently he was relieved from his parent organisation vide office order dt.3-2-1992. The said office order is to the effect that the applicant was released for a period of two years, which would commence from the date he handed over charge of his post in I.T.R., Bala. He would be on lien for a period of two years. It is stated that the applicant would have to re-join the D.R.D.O. within the period of two years of

D.R.D.O. at the end of two years to take-up his assignment in the Department of Technical Development & Production (Air). He joined the new organisation and was taken as strength of the said establishment with effect from 9-4-92. It is apparent that for his move from Balasore to Ozhar, he was given Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance and also joining time. The applicant having served in the said organisation for some time, decided to revert to his parent organisation, within the <sup>stipulated</sup> period of two years.

3. On 12-8-93, he submitted a formal representation to the Scientific Adviser, through proper channel, stating that he was willing to go back to D.R.D.O. for greater job satisfaction. In that representation he also requested that he could be considered, on repatriation, for posting either to D.R.D.L., Hyderabad or to C.R.E., D.R.D.O., Lucknow, because of his past experience. Obviously, his request was accepted and he was allowed to join DRDL, Hyderabad. The dispute is whether or not he is entitled to claim Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance for the move from Ozhar to Hyderabad for self and family members.

4. The Respondents in their reply affidavit have not refuted any of the material facts averred by the applicant in the O.A. Their main contention is that the move of the applicant from Ozhar to Hyderabad was at his own request and as per extant rules, a Government employee on his own request is not entitled to claim Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance. In support of this contention to S.R.114, which reads as under :-

"S.R.114: Travelling allowance may not be drawn under this section by a Government servant on transfer from one station to another unless he is transferred to the public convenience and is entitled to pay during the period occupied by the journey. A transfer at his own request should not be treated as a transfer for the public convenience unless the authority sanctioning the transfer, for special reasons which should be recorded, otherwise directs."

5. A careful reading of the above provision would clearly indicate that it refers to the transfer from "one station to another station" at the request of the employee. The scope of this rule cannot be expanded, to apply, to a case where an employee requests for being reverted to his parent organisation. Such a request cannot be treated as a request transfer from one station to another station. In his representation addressed to the Scientific Adviser, the applicant clearly stated that he was willing to be repatriated to his parent organisation i.e. D.R.D.O. for greater job satisfaction. It was only incidental that he expressed his desire to be posted, on repatriation, either to DRDL, Hyderabad or to CRE, DRDE, Lucknow. The request of the applicant being thus essentially <sup>a</sup> prayer for his reversion to the parent organisation, cannot be treated as a transfer from Ozhar to Hyderabad for personal reasons.

6. There is another important aspect which requires examination. The terms on which he was allowed to leave DRDO and join the DT.

indicate that his lien in the parent organisation was retained for two years and that he would have to either revert to DRDO within <sup>the</sup> said period or offer his resignation to take up his assignment in DTDP (Air). In other words, the DRDO is bound to take the applicant back into their service in case he expresses his desire to revert to DRDO within the period of two years. The said reversion to DRDO cannot therefore be equated with the transfer of an employee at his own request and for personal reasons from one station to another.

7. It is evident that the DRDO itself took the view initially that the applicant was entitled to Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance but felt that the amount of Travelling and Daily Allowances should be paid to the applicant by the DTDP (Air), i.e. the borrowing organisation. This was disputed by the latter and as a result the matter was referred to the Ministry of Defence, who in consultation with the Ministry of Finance, came to the conclusion that the move from Ozhar to Hyderabad being on ~~his~~ own request, ~~xxxx~~ the applicant is not entitled to Travelling and Daily Allowances.

8. As already noted, the move of the applicant from Ozhar to Hyderabad is consequential to his request made ~~by~~ <sup>by</sup> the Ministry of Defence for his being repatriated to parent organisation i.e. DRDO. It is not <sup>for transfer</sup> request / from one station to another ~~for~~ reasons. The respondents are therefore not morally or legally to deny the applicant

h

Allowance and Daily Allowance.

9. In the result, the G.A. is allowed and the Respondents are directed to scrutinise the claim of the applicant for Travelling Allowance and Dearness Allowance and pass the same in accordance with the relevant rules. It is not for the Tribunal to examine, much less decide, as to who in the Ministry of Defence is competent to sanction the Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance. This will be decided by the Department itself. Respondents to comply with this direction within a period of four months from the date of communication of this order. No order as to costs.
