Dt. of Order: 16-1-95.

(Order passed by Hon'ble Shri A.V. Haridasan, Member (J)).

The applicant is the nephew and the adopted son of late Sri K. Satyanarayana, who died while serving as Telephone Supervisor, on 15-4-92. He has filed this application for a direction to the Respondents to appoint him on compassionate grounds on the ground that on the death of his adopted father he has been driven to indigent circumstances.

2. The Respondents in their reply contended that the applicant does not deserve employment assistance on compassionate grounds as the terminal benefits amounting to near about a lakh of rupees was paid to him and that there is no other family member to be maintained. It has also been contended in the reply affidavit that the deceased has left an L.I.G. Flat, ^{which} ~~it~~ would devolve upon the applicant and that therefore the applicant is much better off than many others. Giving our anxious consideration to the facts and the circumstances as stated in the O.A. and in the reply affidavit, we are of the view that the circumstances of the case does not deserve compassionate appointment be given to the applicant. Hence finding no case ~~for~~ deliberation, we reject the application under section 19(3) of A.T. Act, 1985, leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
