DA.1565/94

Judgement

( As per Hon. Mr. A.V. Haridasan, Member (Judicial) )

Heard Sri K.C. Anjaneyulu, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri N.R. Devaraj, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The applicant was one among the 10 candidates sponsored by the Employment Exchange for appointment as EDBPM, Kojjepalli. The third respondent interviewed the candidate on 5-12-1994. It appears that the applicant has gained an impression that R-4 is likely to be appointed to the post. Alleging that the proposed action of the R-3 to appoint R-4 as EDBPM, Kojjepalli, is in violation of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution, the applicant has filed this application.

3. It is alleged that the applicant possesses all the requisite qualifications and also a residential house whereas according to him R-4 is not so qualified as he is and does not possess his own house. It is with this allegation that the applicant seeks to restrain R-3 from going ahead with the selection for the appointment of R-4 as EDBPM, Kojjepalli. It has also been averred that the applicant has got some past experience as he used to work as substitute for his father who was EDBPM, Kojjepalli.

4. On a careful scrutiny of the application, and the material papers, and after hearing learned counsel for the applicant, we do not find even a prima-facie case for further deliberation in the matter. The applicant was only one among several candidates who were sponsored by the Employment Exchange. As long as the selecting authority considers the candidates and takes an impartial decision, there is no reason or justification for the Tribunal to the ~~Tribunal~~ to interfere. There is no allegation against R-3. The allegation in the application that the applicant considers himself more qualified than R-4 is not worthy of serious consideration as he cannot be the best judge of his merits. The case put forwarded by the applicant in the application that R-4 does not hold a house in Kojjepalli, dis-entitles him from being appointed as EDBPM, is also misconceived.

5. Hence, we do not find ~~it~~ a case which deserves to be admitted. The application, is therefore, rejected under Section 19(3) of the AT Act. No costs.
