The post of E.D.D.A., Tadimarri in Dharmavaram
Head Post Office fell vacant on 3-10-1993 consequent upon the resignation of the regular incumbent of that post. The applicant was appointed on provisional basis in that post with effect from 31-10-1993.

The District Employment Exchange, Anantapur

was addressed to sponsor the candidates to fill up this post.

As there was no reply from the Employment Exchange within the stipulated period, ^{an open} a Notification was issued by the Sub Divisional Inspector (Postal), Dharmavaram on 4-12-1993 calling for applications from the eligible candidates duly fixing the last date for receipt of applications as 3--⁰¹~~10~~---1994. In response to that Notification, seven applications were received including that of the applicant as well as Respondent No.3. Respondent No.3 was declared as meritorious candidate and hence he was selected.

This O.A., is filed to quash the appointment of the Respondent No.3 as ^{EDDA}~~EDDA~~, Tadimarri and for a consequential direction to the respondents to appoint the applicant in that post.

A reply has been filed by the respondents in this O.A. The respondents submit that the Notification for filling up the post of EDDA, Tadimarri is not restricted to reserved candidates. The applicant ~~having~~ secured less marks in SSC Examination ^{though passed in the} by ~~passing~~ ^{first attempt} the said Examination ~~in compartmentally~~ whereas Respondent No.3 had secured more marks in S.S.C. Examination ^{though passing} by ~~compartmentally~~ ^{he said} passing the Examination ~~in compartmentally~~ and therefore, he was appointed to the said post.

The main contention of the applicant is that the post is reserved for Scheduled ^{caste} ~~Tribe~~ Candidate, ^{and hence} ~~he~~ ⁱⁿ has to be appointed ~~against~~ that post. Even presuming that the post is reserved for S.C. candidate, Respondent No.3 ~~is~~ also belongs to S.C. Hence the contention of the applicant cannot ~~be~~ hold good.

The second contention of the applicant is that the Respondent No.3 passed the examination compartmentally whereas he has passed the examination in the first attempt; as such he has to be considered meritorious than the Respondent No.3.

The learned counsel for the respondents submits that the total marks secured by the person/ persons is the main criteria in judging the merit of the persons. Even if the candidate had passed the examination in compartmental system, that will not stand in their way to ^{select and} appoint the person who had secured higher marks in the SSC Examination. The rule does not prohibit the appointment of a candidate passed the SSC Examination compartmentally, if in the selection that candidate secured more marks. The above contention is not opposed by the applicant by filing rejoinder. Hence it has to be held that the ~~contention~~ of the respondents cannot be held as void ~~one~~.

As the applicant had secured only 245 marks in the SSC Examination whereas the 3rd respondent had secured 265 marks in the SSC Examination,

Respondent No.3 has to be treated as meritorious candidate than the applicant. Hence, it has to be held that the selection of the Respondent No.3 cannot be challenged.

In the result we find no merit in this O.A. The O.A., is dismissed. No costs.
